

All transcribed from tape, unless otherwise noted
All times PST, San Francisco

27 Feb 76

KCBS, San Francisco (8:30 a.m.)

Richard Nixon was asked by a reporter in the South China city of Kweilin today if he had anything to say about this week's criticism from Stateside on his China trip. Replied Nixon, "Not right now," and walked off.

[Complete.]

CBS Radio (11 a.m.)

Reed Collins: Former President Nixon is being attended by a Chinese specialist from Peking and being followed by an ambulance during his tour of Southern China now. From time to time the former chief executive has shown signs of fatigue, especially after a quarter-mile trudge through the famed caverns of Kweilin the other day.

[Complete.]