

SF Examiner

JAN 4 1976

Nixon history museum to open

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. — A mini-museum called "a little bit of history" and devoted to memorabilia of Richard M. Nixon's visits to San Clemente during his presidency will be opened on the former president's 63rd birthday Friday by a longtime friend and supporter. 9 Jan

Paul Presley, owner of the San Clemente Inn, said Friday he is putting on display hundreds of memorabilia he has collected personally.
