

Notes on People by Laurie Johnston at member of the mission was 50. present at the couple's meet-Wil- ing with Chairman Mao. divorced, The delegation of 12 Amer-retary to ican Congresswomen left Pe-of Nevada, king after a meeting with Paul Laxalt, Deputy Prime Minister Teng ned his secre- Hsiaoping, but did not meet ce. However, she the Chairman. Yesterday, the his wife, follow- women were in Kweilin. In a weekend marriage in statement issued earlier in the 53-year-old Re- Szechwan, the delegation an lawyer, millionaire said that its deputy leader, erty-owner and father of Representative Patsy T. Mink, was divorced three years Democrat of Hawaii, had offer-ago from his wife of 27 ed the People's Institute years. Senator Laxalt is for Foreign Affairs—the host chairman of Citizens for for the trip—a set of books Reagan . about the United States, including the Constitution.

Attracting large audiences in China is a 45-minute color documentary, "Chairman Mao Meets His Guests, Julie and David." The decision to give the fullest possible publicity to the current visit of Julie Nixon Eisenhower and David Eisenhower was in keeping with the style of their reception, which Peking observers said was "almost as if they were heads of state." Members of the American liaison mission there had little contact with the Eisenhowers during their stay from Dec.
 29 to Jan. 2, when they left for Canton and Kweilin. No

An Army deserter, the last known G.I. to leave South Vietnam, is now a civilian Honolulu—without the grace of a dishonorable charge. Veto H. Baker years old, went A 1972 to take care Vietnamese wife children when handed him and orders Asked by several Baker
 his left