

Nixon's Birthday Today-- A Dinner Party at Home

San Clemente

Former President Nixon will celebrate his 63rd birthday today with a dinner party at home for his family and a few friends.

Julie and David Eisenhower,

Mr. Nixon's daughter and son-in-law, are expected to return from their trip to China in time to join a few of Mr. Nixon's close friends at his secluded villa overlooking the Pacific.

Associated Press