
SF Examiner FEB 6 1976
Parole for Nixon ex-aide

Associated Press

WASHINGTON—Dwight L. Chapin, onetime presidential aide in the Nixon White House, today was ordered paroled from Lompoc, Calif. Prison Camp on April 2, after serving eight months of an 18-month term for lying to the Watergate grand jury.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard A. Gesell last December reduced Chapin's sentence.
