

Notes on People by Laurie Johnston

...-old
 ...town and
 of California,
 ...en most recently
 ...ociate professor at
 ...yo's International Chris-
 ...an University. Her husband, Shijuro Ogata, is with the Bank of Japan office here.

Paramount Pictures has bought movie rights to John D. Ehrlichman's novel, "The Company," for a reported $75,000. The book, to be published in July by Simon & Schuster, is a sort of roman à clef dealing with a Watergate-like upheaval in Washington. Mr. Ehrlichman is living in Santa Fe, N.M., while appealing his Watergate conviction. A Paramount said yesterday, "It is too early to discuss our plans for
 'The Company.'"

Eleanora Iannone of Binghamton has been chopresident-elect of the Association of Lawyers, mdelphia,
 the A,
 c-