

Notes on People by Laurie Johnston

Times
MAR 17 1976

Pleading not guilty in Santa Monica to using electronic devices to bypass telephone billing equipment on overseas calls, Bernard Cornfeld was simultaneously hit with a $1-million civil damage suit by Pacific Telephone Company. April 27 was set for the criminal trial of the 47-year-old former head of Investors Overseas Services.