
Personalities

Caroline Kennedy is "not a plastic princess," and enjoys bubble gum, crossword puzzles and jokes, according to a London friend, Peter Benson, who wrote about the 18-year-old daughter of President John F. Kennedy in the April issue of Good Housekeeping.

"To be sociable at a party she might take a drag on a joint and she'll certainly take a drink (she told me she prefers liquor to pot) but that's all," he wrote. "I have never once seen her drunk."

Her mother, Jacqueline Onassis, and brother, John Jr., are spending two weeks in Montego Bay, Jamaica, where they were met at the airport Sunday by a calypso band. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Zanderer. The Peter Duchins and Timothy Shriver accompanied Mrs. Onassis.

WXPost MAR 23 1976

A newly slim, sporty-looking Ron Ziegler was spotted at lunch Saturday with columnist Jack Anderson — but whatever interest the confab otherwise might have produced in the Sans Souci fishbowl was lost on the Saturday crowd, consisting mostly of tourists.