The Reagan Camp

Editor — To orthodox conservative Republicans Barry Goldwater's continued attacks on Ronald Reagan should come as no surprise.

Whereas in the past the Arizona Republican was at least a "token" spokesman for our cause, his true colors were unfurled on August 6, 1974 when he stated "Nixon should get his ass out of the White House."

We in the Reagan camp hardly need a man who not only courts the favor of Gerald Ford but who, like Ford, was part of the cabal to destroy Richard Nixon.
