

NYTimes • MAY 18 1976

Ford and the Pardon Factor

To the Editor:

Your May 9 editorial "President Under Siege" gives reasons for current disaffection with President Ford. One factor which was omitted and which may have considerable weight is latent resentment by many voters, regardless of party, at President Ford's pardon of Richard Nixon and the crass attempt, so far thwarted by Congress, to turn over to the former President all his papers and tapes.

K. B. OUTERBRIDGE

Princeton, N. J., May 9, 1976