

Ginn Confirmed As Ambassador To Luxemburg

Washington

The Senate yesterday confirmed Rosemary Ginn of Missouri as ambassador to Luxemburg, succeeding Ruth Farkas, whose appointment was among those investigated by a Watergate grand jury looking into Nixon administration corruption charges.

Ginn, 63, has been a member of the Republican National Committee and an active participant in Missouri Republican politics for 40 years.

Farkas, who resigned, has denied allegations that the $300,000 she and her husband contributed to Richard Nixon's 1972 presidential campaign was a payoff for her appointment to the ambassadorial post.
