

Wallace's TV Speech

Montgomery

Alabama Governor George Wallace yesterday purchased five minutes of network television time to deliver a speech to the nation June 3.

Wallace's campaign manager, Charles Snider, announced that the time had been purchased and dismissed as "utterly ridiculous" any thought that Wallace would announce he was dropping out of the democratic presidential race or becoming an inactive candidate.
