Delegate Visit
With Nixon

WARWICK, R.I., Aug. 21 (AP)— Rabbi Baruch Korff says he arranged for four or five delegates to the Republican National Convention in Kansas City to visit today with former President Nixon in San Clemente, Calif.

Organizer of the President Nixon Justice Fund to raise money to pay Nixon's Watergate attorney fees, Korff said Friday that he personally arranged the "courtesy call." 20 AUG

Nearly a hundred delegates sought appointments with Nixon, he said.

"Some of them asked me to make appointments for them," Korff explained. "I didn't call the President, but I called my office in Washington."
Korff said Nixon agreed to meet with the delegates.

Korff, who lives in Rehoboth, Mass., and has offices in Washington said he felt he should arrange appointments for Nixon supporters to meet with the former president.

He would not name the delegates or give any other details of the meetings with Nixon.
