GOP Delegate Says Nixon
Watched Convention on TV
AUG 23 1976

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif., Aug. 22 (AP)—A delegate to the Republican national Convention who visited former President Nixon Saturday says Nixon apparently watched the entire proceedings on television. (21 AUG)

Jusuf Galib, 38, a civil engineer who represented Puerto Rico at last week's convention in Kansas City, said he had a 45-minute conversation with Nixon at the Nixon estate here. His visit was arranged by Nixon supporter Rabbi Baruch Korff.

Galib said Nixon told him that it was "a good idea" for President Ford to debate Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter. Nixon, who debated John F. Kennedy in 1960, told Galib that "you have to be well-prepared" for a debate.

Galib said Nixon did not disclose his feelings about being ignored at the GOP convention, where his name was never publicly mentioned.
