

AP photo

Conceding to Carter

President Ford's voice was gone yesterday afternoon when he met the press to concede the election to Jimmy Carter. Betty Ford read her husband's statement, while Steve Ford, President Ford, Susan

Ford, Michael Ford, Michael's wife, Gayle, and Jack Ford listened somberly. Then the Fords said their good-bys to the press. See story on Page 1.

UPI Telephoto

President Ford, his voice gone, listened to his wife, Betty concede the election