Ex-Nixon Aide's Wife Is Missing

New York

Grace Garment, the wife of former presidential counsel Leonard Garment is missing.

The police Department's missing Persons Squad said Garment, now a U.S. representative to the United Nation's Human Rights Commission, reported his wife missing Saturday.

Mrs. Garment was last seen about 1:30 p.m. Friday at Pennsylvania Station in New York. She was wearing a pink turtleneck sweater, brown fur coat and slacks.

She is a writer for the daytime television series "Edge of Night."

Garment, who now lives in Brooklyn Heights, was counsel to President Nixon during the Watergate investigations.
