

What Carter Thought of Nixon on TV

London

President Carter told reporters on Air Force One en route to the seven-nation economic meeting here that he watched the first 15 minutes and the last 15 minutes of former President Richard Nixon's televised interview with David Frost Wednesday night.

"It didn't change my mind," Carter said. "I think he was frank in saying that he lied to the American people on some of the statements that he made."

"I think Nixon has convinced himself that he did not violate the law," Carter said. "It was an interesting discussion, but I doubt if the American people were enlightened by it."

Carter was asked whether he thinks Nixon did indeed violate the law.

"Well, I don't know," the President replied.

Associated Press

---