

SFChronicle

By Dianne Levy

The Book Is Here

The book that is causing an international furor, 'The Ends of Power' by onetime Nixon aide H. R. Haldeman, arrived in San Francisco yesterday and appeared to be an instant hit. At B

Dalton Bookseller, six of their 325 copies were sold before the books could be put on display. Store manager Bobbie Kroman (above) said 'we've already re-ordered.'