WHO'S WHO IN PREDATORY PROPAGANDA?

"I am mailing you today, in franked envelope, the complete testimony of Colonel Charles Lindbergh...."

In this way, John B. Snow, director of the League for Constitutional Government, 18 East 48th Street, New York City, opens a letter (illustration on this page) to likely "prospects". For years, Snow has been a professional Red baiter who quite naturally drifted into Nazi company when this "Cause" loomed as a well-paying proposition. His present activities are all the more symptomatic since -- seizing opportunity by the forelock -- Snow has jumped on the

JOHN B. SNOW

18 East 48th Street

New York City

February 10, 1941

I am mailing you today in franked envelope the complete testimony of Colonel Charles Lindbergh before the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives.

I believe that a wide and careful distribution of Colonel Lindbergh's complete testimony will have a tremendous effect. It will be read and studied. It will be quoted. Arguments from it will be adopted and used in personal correspondence and conversation. It will tend to prevent mis-quoting Colonel Lindbergh by the press. It gives a clear, logical answer to every conceivable question of the interventionists. It is logically uncompromising. One easily discovers a fundamental error in the argument of all those who have attempted compromise on this issue. They commit the nation to a policy that is undefinable, limitless, therefore uncontrollable.

Sincerely yours,

Anti-H.R.1776 bandwagon, and all arguments advanced by opponents of the bill are grist for his predatory propaganda mill. His labors in the Totalitarian vineyard are greatly facilitated by the fact that he has found so obliging a solon as the Honorable James C. Oliver, representing a Maine Congressional District, to supply him with paper bullets.

Indeed, Oliver has become a very important man for Snow, because it is under that M.C.'s franking privilege -- and thus at the expense of American taxpayers -- that Snow spreads his germs of hate all over the forty-eight states. In this way, partly at the expense of the public purse, the League for Constitutional Government is carrying on a circulation-boosting campaign for private profit.

Without attempting to pillory all the boomerang experts who pretend to aim at H.R.1776 but, in reality, snipe at Democracy, NEWS LETTER, from its files, herewith furnishes a condensed roster of publicity manipulators who are intent upon either fostering Totalitarianism in one form or another, or replenishing their ever empty private coffers -- or both!

Just as law-makers of pre-War days used to provide (at Government expense) constituents with free seed for their back yards, so now some of the solons just as liberally distribute legislative "literature", calculated to bear fruit -- of sorts. Hon. Oliver is one of them; the seeds he supplies, and which Mr. Snow "plants" in suitable propaganda cabbage patches, are reprints of an "Extract from Hearings Before the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives". They are a transcript of statements made by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh on January 23rd, last. It is true enough that, as an annotation on the title page states, this pamphlet of some 20,000 words was "not printed at Government expense" -- but it is also true that the typesetting, proof-reading, etc., etc., was paid for out of public funds, and it is especially noteworthy to observe that its nation-wide distribution, at the behest and in the interest of Mr. Snow, is handled by the United States mail (illustration on page 5) under the Congressional franking privilege -- which is money out of John Q. Citizen's jeans!

Scribner's  Commentator

65-1 MADISON AVENUE
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Dear Fellow American:

Scribner's Commentator has taken the liberty of arranging with Representative Oliver of Maine to have sent you the unexpurgated text of Colonel Lindbergh's historic testimony during recent hearings on the Lend-Lease Bill.

Because we believe that present wars in Europe and Asia have no bearing on America's safety, or its ultimate destiny, we hope you will read it cover to cover. In fact we should like to see it in the hands of every true American.

By all means send us the names of your friends who would also like to receive this brochure. There is no charge involved.

The seventy-odd pages just compiled reflect a deep and thorough understanding of our present difficulties. The direct simplicity of his answers cut sharply through the arguments of the pressure groups forcing this country into war. Such courageous and informed testimony is vital to us all at this present time.

As Snow's current performance shows, he is admirably adept at using democratic taxpayers' money for pro-Totalitarian ends. However, Snow is by no means the only opportunist who, for the purpose of "circulation building", utilizes Lindbergh's statements before Congressional committees. "Scribner's Commentator" is making use of the selfsame trick. Completely bearing out the analysis of its anti-Democratic, pro-appeasement orientation as presented in NEWS LETTER of December 18, 1940, this monthly is addressing letters (illustration on this page) to many a "Dear Fellow American", advising the happy recipient that

Scribner's Commentator has taken the liberty of arranging with Representative Oliver of Maine to have sent to you the unexpurgated text of Colonel Lindbergh's historic testimony....

The extent to which the Hon. Oliver stands ready to employ taxpayers' money in advancing the publicistic fortunes of "Scribner's Commentator" becomes especially evident from the unabashed "plug":

....By all means, send us the names of your friends who would also like to receive this brochure. There is no charge involved. May we suggest that you keep yourself informed.... by subscribing at once to Scribner's Commentator.... (Underscoring by NRS).

May we suggest that you keep yourself informed throughout the trying months to come by subscribing at once to Scribner's Commentator whose every effort will be devoted to helping America arm to the teeth for her own defense. If we can be allowed to concentrate on our own neglected home defense we can avoid foreign entanglements and resulting foreign wars.

Such a subscription is not a matter of business, it is insurance, and we believe you will find Scribner's Commentator the only national magazine 100% opposed to the foreign influences wrecking our country. It is time for all Americans to help one another in this new struggle to preserve our institutions--this second crusade of Independence.

Sincerely,

George T. Eggleston,
Editor

If you are already one of our subscribers kindly pass this on to a friend.

"Snow of Yesteryear"

Unlike "Scribner's Commentator", which was created only recently by editorially debasing two decent publications such as the "Scribner's" of old and respected standing, and the much younger but in its time very promising "Commentator", Snow's escapades into the field of predatory propaganda reach back over years. Among catch-penny stunts he pulled during his more recent "career", one stands out as ultima Thule of brazenness and political pettifogging: a viciously scurrilous pamphlet (illustration on page 4) entitled "The Aggressor in the White House". Some idea of the unfair incriminations with which this brochure abounds is conveyed by the following reproduction (in facsimile) of its concluding paragraphs:

The President warns us against foreign aggressors, aggressors conjured from his imagination and pictured in prophetic revelations. But the only aggressor that we actually have is within, not one of fiction or fancy but of fact and of record. His technique is the technique of preaching peace and practicing aggression. His acts of aggression are against our: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Constitution third term tradition Monroe Doctrine military defenses international friendships international trade open diplomacy peace and security volunteer enlistment system social unity American way of life 	Inducted by an economic emergency and propelled by synthetic emergencies, the President has at last created a most serious emergency that challenges the veto of the electorate. IN THIS NATIONAL EMERGENCY WE PETITION THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO QUARANTINE THE AGGRESSOR IN THE WHITE HOUSE PENDING THE MANDATE OF THE PEOPLE AND THE EXPIRATION OF HIS OFFICIAL POWERS. ANY GRANT OF ADDITIONAL EXECUTIVE POW- ERS OR UNCHALLENGED USURPATIONS WILL INCREASE THE PERIL TO THE REPUBLIC.

When "The Aggressor" was put into circulation, it was touted to be ....the most effective exposé of Mr. Roosevelt's hypocrisy and sinister purpose that can be condensed into a short pamphlet....

It was mailed out together with a typical Snow plug letter (illustration on page 4) which contained such crude appeals for financial support as:

....Our ability to take this message to the American people....rests with you (Snow's emphasis) and others whose support we may be able to enlist....Any publicity or paid advertising that you are able to give this pamphlet, which would stimulate an interest in the document, will greatly aid us....

As these samples demonstrate, Snow's campaigning ran true to the form of pernicious propagandists who seek to enlist the financial and publicistic assistance of the gullible by making them believe that in supporting an avaricious rabble-rouser, they are actually performing a patriotic duty.

Among other publications (illustration on page 6) pushed by Snow's League for Constitutional Government were such pamphlets as "Wolves in Sheep's Clothing" by George E. Sullivan, ex-Congressman Jacob Thorkelson's side-kick (as revealed in NEWS LETTER of June 26, 1940); and another release, rather whimsically -- considering who published it -- entitled "The High Cost of Hate". This brochure came from the pen of Ralph Townsend of San Francisco, whose cleverly smokescreened pro-Japanese and pro-Axis publications were analyzed in NRS issues of October 9 and December 25, 1940. Still another Snow product is "Germany and England" by Nesta H. Webster, which originally appeared in "The Patriot", a pro-Nazi newspaper published in pre-War England. Mrs. Webster's stature as a Hitlerite may be measured by the fact that she has earned Doktor Goebbels' unstinted acclaim. No wonder -- for, at the very beginning of her "essay", Mrs. Webster states:

AID TO GREAT BRITAIN

There is nothing you can do, but to use your power as American citizens. We talk so much about "aid" to Great Britain, but shall in any case succeed in doing so? But shall we use our power to force a halt to the flow of goods to the Axis?

LEAGUE FOR CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT
EIGHTEEN EAST FORTY-EIGHTH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

We are enclosing a copy of our new pamphlet, entitled:
"QUARANTINE THE AGGRESSOR IN THE WHITE HOUSE"

This mailing is in accordance with our usual custom of furnishing sample material to all individuals who have been interested in the educational activities of the League, but please note from the attached letter to Congress that this is the instrument of a campaign which we hope you will support.

"Quarantine the Aggressor in the White House" is a vigorous attack against the foreign policies of the New Deal Government. For some unknown reason, the true picture of our dangerous international policies has not been made clear to the American people. Let us help to make it clear.

We believe that our pamphlet is the most effective exposé of Mr. Roosevelt's hypocrisy and sinister purpose that can be condensed into a short pamphlet.

Our ability to take this message to the American people before election, however, rests with you and others whose support we may be able to enlist.

You can mail copies of this pamphlet to your friends and associates or lend financial support to this organization, to enable us to send copies to many others on our extensive mailing lists in all states of the Union.

Mr. Roosevelt's foreign policy must be repudiated in the coming election and our time is limited.

We would appreciate an acknowledgment of this mailing.

Yours very truly,

John B. Snow

Director

P.S. Any publicity or paid advertising that you are able to give this pamphlet, which would stimulate an interest in the document, will greatly aid us in this campaign.

Snow always excelled in the composition of "plug" letters. Above reproduction is one of his best specimens, drumming up trade for his "Aggressor" pamphlet.

March 9th 1935

Dear Mr Sanctuary;

I have only just returned from Bermuda, hence the delay in replying to your letter of March 1st.

At the time of my visit to Russia, the Presidential Campaign was in full swing over here.

In many places in Russia I saw large cartoons of Mr Hoover entitled "The Fathead in The White House" and beside them, very flattering portraits of Mr Roosevelt entitled "The Next Communist President of the United States".

At that time the names of Bullitt and Tugwell were unknown to me, so that I was puzzled when young communist guides would ask me when Comrade Tugwell was going to have Russia recognised, and that Comrade Bullitt was going to be the first Ambassador.

Future events show that the young communists of Russia knew more about American politics than I did!

Very sincerely yours, set out to restore their country by conventional methods. The old Pan-German dream of world power was replaced by a Nationalist scheme for the union of all German peoples under one head, leaving the peoples of other countries to work out their own destinies.

Then was the moment for the ending of war hates and of peace between the nations which throughout thirteen years of endless congresses and assemblies had been the professed aim of European statesmen, of the talkers at Geneva and countless Pacifist associations, then was the moment for the whole civilized world which for fifteen years had been tossed on the waves of unrest set in motion by Moscow, to see in Hitler, as it should have seen in Mussolini, a saviour from the greatest enemy of the human race—the hideous system of tyranny which threatened to spread itself into every country, well stigmatised by Mr. Winston Churchill at its outset as “the bloody baboonery” of Bolshevism.

Instead of this Hitler was reviled, as Mussolini had been reviled after he had saved Italy from the grip of the Red octopus, and such is the power of the Press and of mass hypnotism exercised over the minds of the British public that they were now made to regard Hitler as their mortal enemy.

Yet in the place of an autocratic Emperor at the head of a

What's in a Name?

As pointed out in earlier issues of NEWS LETTER, many vultures of democracy enjoy the full recognition of the Nazi Ministry of Propaganda. One of Herr Doktor Goebbels' fair-haired boys -- sufficiently subversive in his activities to rate handsome recommendation via the pages of "World Service" -- is a former United States Army colonel whose name -- of all things! -- is E. N. Sanctuary.

This colonel of the ironic monicker is one of the most active peddlers of the notoriously spurious "Protocols of the Elders of Zion". Indeed, whenever some befuddled soul, attempting to obtain information on the general state of anti-Democracy, writes a letter of inquiry -- to give only one example -- to The Anglo-Saxon Federation of America, a reply (illustration on page 8) is furnished which advises the seeker of truth to communicate with Sanctuary. Incidentally, the Anglo-Saxon Federation at one time counted among its most substantial supporters William J. Cameron, nationally known as "Henry Ford's Radio Voice", and also remembered as the editor of Ford's gone but not forgotten "Dearborn Independent".

Sanctuary, probably as a leftover of his military career, is still imbued with the spirit of attack, and it is in this very mood of aggressiveness that he indites his pamphlets. His latest, entitled "War Guilt and Warmonger" (illustration on page 5), proclaims:

ONLY THE TRUTH CAN SAVE THE U.S.A.
PATRIOTS!

DEMAND:

NO FOREIGN WARS!
NO WAR MUNITIONS TO OTHER NATIONS!
NO MORE POWER TO ROOSEVELT!

Read the Record and Force Congress to Reject Roosevelt's Aid Bill
France Committed Suicide for England---
Are Americans to be Dupes Also?
BOLSHEVICK DICTATORSHIP THREATENS U.S.A.
Facts Can Blast Dictatorship Out of Power

The Colonel, whose name so misleadingly smacks of serenity, is also the author of another vile pamphlet, insinuatively entitled "Revolution and the Real Fifth Column". Its contents can best be characterized by a reproduction of the inside front cover (illustration on page 5). It is so revealing that it makes any comment utterly superfluous, especially as Sanctuary presses into service as introduction a letter written in 1935 (!) by Carveth Wells. An idea of the author's rabble-rousing technique is furnished by the fact that he subtitles his calumnious treatise: "Does This 'Fifth Column' Head Up in the White House?" In line with this caption, Sanctuary actually charges that President Roosevelt is a Communist!

A professional hater, Sanctuary, like many of his ilk, exposes himself to the charge of being a potential traitor since, in peddling his subversive theories, he needs must stultify the constitutional democratic tenets of the country. Everybody so minded is entitled to fight the Lend-Lease Bill, with the result that this privilege also must be extended to such men as Snow and Sanctuary. However, when men of their stripe are "agin" something, it is generally worth investigating why they go to such lengths to befuddle political innocents.

Shock-Troop Propaganda Technique

The phalanx of those who fight Aid to Britain is naturally, and noisily, joined by Americagermans, especially those who are organized in the German American National Alliance (GANA). Described, among other occasions, in NEWS LETTER of June 5 and July 24, 1940, GANA, "affiliated with the National Federation of American Citizens of Germanic Descent", is issuing a monthly news letter (illustration on page 4). Its current issue carries a leading article, entitled "Aid to Great Britain", the leitmotif of which is epitomized in its opening and closing paragraphs:

The over-propagandized statement that we must give aid to Great Britain, is a clever trap. Once you agree with that statement, the idea will be expanded, step by step, until the aid to be given means aid by our country entering the war on the side of Great Britain. This is what our late Senator William E. Borah maintained. -His foresight has been confirmed. It is, but a short time ago, when the lat There are organized cliques, which beat the	drums of war, backed by unlimited funds. But there are also several committees efficiently aiding you in your fight to save the lives of the sons of America and to preserve American institutions and the American way of life. Assist these committees in their fight for you. Assist them financially and morally. They need money to arouse the public. Assist these committees at once! Jan. 25, 1941 Paul A. F. Warnholtz

The editorial is signed by Paul A. F. Warnholtz, by no means a stranger to readers of NEWS LETTER. Once more it shows the Americagerman Nazi propagandist in cahoots with such groups as the "Citizen, Keep America Out of War Committee" and the "America First Committee". What puts special emphasis on the subversivist aims of the current issue of the German American National Alliance news letter is the fact that it was utilized to stage a mass assault against the Lend-Lease Bill protagonists. Usually only of limited circulation, the February news letter was broadcast far and wide throughout the United States. It appeared in the letter boxes of thousands of people who were absolutely unable to account for the fact that the German American National Alliance considered them good "prospects" for pro-Nazi propaganda, except that their names suggested a German background.

Still more emphasis was added to the news letter by enclosing with it a leaflet (illustration on page 4) which, with dialectic cunning, tries to make it appear that the question of the Lend-Lease Bill is one of plunging America into or keeping her out of war. Much too small to be legible in reproduction, the leaflet carries in its left-hand bottom corner, in tiny script, the letters "G.A.N.A.", together with the information: "P.O. Box 492, Chicago". Only brethren in Nazism could be expected to discern that Herr Doktor Goebbels is pulling the strings behind this leaflet deluge.

Vultures of Democracy

Hand in hand with Americagermans, the "American Peace Mobilization" fights H.R. 1776. On February 24, this organization of distinctly Communistic tinge held a rally at the Los Angeles Shrine Auditorium at Jefferson and Figueroa. Handbills announcing the mass meeting (illustration on page 4) popped up in abundant quantities at the headquarters of all Los Angeles Nazi groups. As might be expected, a considerable portion of the audience consisted of Deutsches Haus heelers who make it a point to attend the meetings of obstructionist groups of all shades, such as T. W. Hughes' "Save America First", Harold A. Sparling's "True Americans", Edith Shol's "American Freedom Association", the Silver Shirts, Coughlinites, etc.

Communism and Hitlerism having proved a veritable boon to all rabble-rousers, whether of major or of minor league standing, they now fear that, with the passage of H.R.1776, their very stock in trade may be snatched away from them. And then, where would they be? Accordingly, star performers on the pro-Totalitarian stage and also-runs alike have made their plans to continue along their different and devious paths of obstructionism, regardless of what Congress may decide. Their attempts to spread disunion will continue unabated.

It is for this reason that the publication of a "Who's Who in Predatory Propaganda?" seemed indicated.
