

Relative to letters of solicitation; there has been no solicitation letters written on industrial cases since August 19, 1954, and letters prior to that time were destroyed.

In answer to the inquiry as to a file on legislation effecting detective agencies, I have no such file and have no knowledge of any such communication.

The following is a list of employees other than undercover operatives:

Floyd Brewer, Manager
Mildred Brewer, Cashier
Verna Yehrs, Assistant Stenographer (Temporary)
C. E. Neville, Sign Salesman
G. E. Anderson, Investigator
Carl Caswell, Investigator -HPD

No arms are furnished by the agency and in cases where the client wishes the guard deputized, such petition must be made by the client before a notary on a regular form from the Police Department.

No written reports of operative are made in industrial cases. Reports are made verbally to the client, and the only written reports operatives make, if it is an out of town case, is an expense account.

The only memorandum on cases, is the Journal Memorandum, blank form enclosed.

In response to your inquiry as to form No. 157, Journal Memorandum, is the only such form we have in this office, blank form enclosed. It is sent to San Francisco Accounting, New York Piling, New York Accounting, and one retained in our file.

Form No. 157, which is entitled "Brief", blank enclosed, is not used by this office.

Very truly yours,

THE WM. J. BURNS

TO- Mr. W. Sherman Burns, Secretary-

FROM- Wm. H. Crow - Chicago Office-

RE:- ALL OFFICE LETTER 707-H
LaFollette Committee.

Chicago, Illinois.
December 31, 1936.

Complying with your instructions of December 21, the writer has made a careful search of all records, beginning with January 1933 and to date, but the effort put forth was somewhat in vain; there were practically no real undercover operations conducted by any operatives working out of this office during the time mentioned. However, many operatives were placed in plants to detect thefts and, unfortunately, such operations were listed by us being that type of service, viz; "UNDERCOVER". Therefore, I am listing each investigator in accordance with the operative's number assigned to him who even worked as much as one-half day in connection with the cases listed somewhat erroneously:

SECRET OPERATIVES	UNIONS	DUES
1.	International Brotherhood. Electrical Workers, local not known.	Paid dues himself, then re-imbursed.
2.	None.

75.	None.
76.	None.
77.	Member of a mechanist's union, but name unknown to writer and as investigator is not in our employ at present the writer was unable to locate him.	Paid his own dues.
78.	Status not known.
79.	" " "
80.	None.

All of the above numbered investigators and operatives conducted investigations as recorded by the investigator who recently represented the LaFollette Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Crow - Manager,
CHICAGO OFFICE.
