

THE DAY JFK WAS SHOT

by Jim Bishop

San Francisco Examiner:

eleven installments, 25 Nov to 7 Dec 68.

5 Years Ago Today

“THE DAY JFK WAS SHOT”

PRESIDENT LYNDON JOHNSON has granted only one interview to discuss his vivid recollections of November 22, 1963 in Dallas.

Jim Bishop was the man he talked to.

“THE DAY JFK WAS SHOT”

PRESIDENT LYNDON JOHNSON has granted only one interview to discuss his vivid recollections of November 22, 1963 in Dallas.

Jim Bishop was the man he talked to.

Now, five years after that fateful day which has aroused so much rumor, speculation and controversy, the San Francisco Examiner will publish Jim Bishop's full story in an so much rumor, speculation and controversy, the San Francisco Examiner will publish Jim Bishop's full story in an exclusive 10-part series, starting on Monday, November 25.

This uncensored account reveals the answers to many questions about the Kennedy assassination, including: Why Lyndon Johnson boarded Air Force One, enraging the Kennedy group. What Lyndon Johnson and Jackie Kennedy said to each other during the flight back to Washington.

A 10-part Examiner Exclusive
Starting Monday, November 25
