Counterplot Counterplot Counterplot Counterplot

What is Jim Garrison up to?
What led him from Oswald to David Ferrie to Clay Shaw?

What is behind the perjury indictments that preceded the Shaw trial?

What are the mysterious phone numbers that link Oswald, Ruby, and Shaw?

How does the CIA fit in?

EDWARD JAY EPSTEIN

the most respected critic of the Warren Commission, analyzes Garrison's case against Shaw in a book "that says a lot about demagoguery and the United States.... More important than Mr. Epstein's first book, Inquest.... Fascinating."—HERBERT MITGANG, New York Magazine. "Epstein's book is pitiless, devastating."—EDWIN M. YODER, JR., Book World. "Sets the whole Garrison story in a perspective that he won't like at all.... It has dispelled the last vestiges of the web of plot and conspiracy."—MAX LERNER, N.Y. Post
