

SF Examiner July 16 1966

Walter Winchell

The Man About Town's Pocketful of Notes

"Miss Universe of '61," Marlene Schmidt (who shed husband Ty Hardin of H'wood), has a new mate. German TV star Hans Dietrich Otte . . . CBS landlord Bill Paley refused H. Hughes' offer to buy all of his network stock . . . Biggest loser this year in Vegas, they say, is the son of a shah. Over 750 big ones. (U.S. aid money?) . . . Gina Lollobrigida's 10 room apt in Paris cost her $420,000 . . . Lynda Johnson is much prettier than that photo from Spain in the N.Y. Times. But that's the price you pay when you quarrel with news fotogs . . . The Rolling Stones' Keith Richards can't wait to get back to London where Canadian fashion model Karen Moller makes his a happy face.

Star Jennifer Jones' pals wish she'd find someone to help stop the melancholia since her husband died . . . Ice-skating champs Don McPherson and Carol-Ann Warner ended their less-than-one-year marriage. But will continue their act . . . New Yorkers who suffer bumper-to-bumper motoring in the Long Island expressway call it the world's longest parking lot.

★ ★ ★

THE BOBBY DARIN-SANDRA DEE trial separation is adding more mileage than pals expected . . . Director Mike Nichols dates this-doll-and-that-babe but he always seems to return to Ann Marshall . . . Bob Evans, newest producer at 20th Century-Fox, and his starlet wife are back in circulation and better friends than ever . . . The Kennedy family authorized the one book about the assassination the public will believe. The detective work was done by Wm. Manchester. The book will be published next year. It agrees with the Warren report that Oswald did it.

"Peyton Place" co-stars Chris Connolly and Pat Morrow decided to wait another year before blend-