PRESSURE DENIED ON KENNEDY BOOK

Family Said to Be Concerned Over Its Serialization

Are the Kennedys trying to delay, censor or squelch the settalization of William Man-chester's account of the assas-sination of the President? So persistent are reports of family interference that Look magazine is planning a full-page newspaper advertisement next week that will announce the forthcoming publication and week that will amounte the forthcoming publication and quote the author's statement neither the President's widow, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, nor his brother Senator Robert F. Kennedy had tried to edit the man-

Distortion Feared

Distortion Feared They are said to fear that ceftain episodes, printed outside the total context of the drama, might present some important individuals in an unsympathetic and distorting — light. Consequently Mrs. Kennedy is reported to fell that Look should run the manuscript in two or three long installments. Then there would be less danger of distortion, especially in news articles based on the install-ments. ments.

"There are episodes in the nar-rative that require delicate and detailed handling. According to on who has read it, the Man-chester manuscript reveals that in their last conversation Presi-dent Kennedy and Vice Presi-dent ohnson got into an agru-ment.

dent ohnson got into an agru-ment. President Kennedy reportedly did not feel that his visit to Texas was necessary. Why could not Mr. Johnson, with all his reputed skill as a Texas politi-cian, patch up the feud between the state's two Democratic fac-tions: the Connolly Democrats, and the Yarborough Democrats, and let the President tend to pressing business in Washing-ton? Reflecting that the Texas trip

Reflecting that the Texas trip

Reflecting that the Texas trip ended in the President's assas-sination in Dallas, a careless reading of the Kennedy-Johnson argument might result in anger over the role of Mr. Johnson. But Mr. Manchester is said to have given at considerable length the reasons Mr. Johnson urged the trip. Texas had been won. in 1960 by a slim margin, and a deepening Democratic split threatened loss of the state to the Republicans in 1964. Mr Johnson is said to have argued spit threatened loss of the state to the Republicans in 1964. Mr Johnson is said to have argued that, since becoming Vice Presi-dent, he had lost much of his political leverage in Texas, and that only a visit by the Presi-dent would help. - Look plans to start serializa-tion early in 1967, it was learned, and the appearance of the last installment will coin-cide with publication of the hook by Harper & Row, Look is, said to have paid a record $650,000 for first serial rights. Some of Mr. Manchester's material has been deleted on grounds of taste and national inferest, it was learned, but none of the Kennedys have read the manuscript let alone tried to censor it. Of the ten hours of taned in-the manuscript let alone trica to censor it. __Of the ten hours of taped in-terviews with Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. Manchester himself deleted some segments because he felt that publication would be "unwarranted invasion of privacy." These deletions will be kept under seal at the John F. Ken-nedy Library in Boston.
