Newsweek Says Johnson Is Unhappy With Reports About Book on Kennedy

By ROBERT E. DALLOS

Newsweek magazine says it has learned that President John-son is unhappy with some of the accounts of events following the assassination of President. Kennedy as they are said to appear in William Manchester's forthcoming book, "The Death of a President."

The magazine, in its issue that will reach newsstands to-day, quotes the President as telling "intimates" that his own recollections of a number of events differ from descriptions that are reported to be in the book.

book. The Manchester book, ex-cerpts of which are scheduled to be published in Look maga-zine beginning with the issue on sale Jan. 10, is said to picture Mr. Johnson as being insensi-tive to Mrs. John F. Kennedy's feelings in the hours immedi-ately after the shooting. "Now," says Newsweek, "in-timates say, he is 'as puzzled as anyone' about the flap. Un-happy about the flap. Un-happy about the flap. Un-happy about the flap. Un-happy about the stories about the Manchester book, he understands at the same time that the Kennedy set would have resented anyone who suc-ceeded John Kennedy."

White House Comment

According to Newsweek, for example, the President has been quoted as saying that the Secret Service wanted him to board Air Force One, with its "supe-rior communications gear," while the Kennedy coffin was to re-turn to Washington in the Vice-Presidential plane, Air Force Two. Two.

But Mr. Johnson, according to the magazine, ordered the body placed on the Presidential jet.

placed on the Presidential jet. "I wasn't going to let Mrs. Kennedy fly back alone with his body," Mr. Johnson is quoted by Newsweek as telling intimates. A White House spokesman said last night that the maga-zine in its report had apparently matched past comments made by Mr. Johnson to what is re-ported to be detailed in the book scheduled for publication in April. April.

"The President has not given any interviews," said the spokes-man. "In fact he has not spoken in any way to the issue of the Manchester book."

Newsweek also reports that Mr. Johnson has a version of the circumstances under which Mr. he took the oath of office be-fore returning to the capital. That is different from the version that is said to be in version th the book.

According to the President's memory, Newsweek says, Rob-ert F. Kennedy, who was then Attorney General, was non-committal about when Mr. Johnson was to take the oath of office.

Phone Call Detailed

Phone Call Detailed Mr. Johnson is quoted as say-ing that he telephoned Mr. Kennedy, the slain President's brother, in Washington, say-ing "I hate to bother you at a time like this, but . . . " and then asking for a ruling. Mr. Johnson said, according to Newsweek, that Mr. Ken-nedy told him that he thought the swearing-in should take place in Dallas, but that Mr. Kennedy would check and call him back. Mr. Johnson, according to him back. Mr. Johnson, according to this version, said the return call came from Nicholas deB Katzenbach, the then Deputy Attorney General, who advised Mr. Johnson to take the presi-dential oath at once and then dictated its wording to a sec-retary.

dictated its working retary. Reached at his home in Washington last night, Mr. Katzenbach, now an Under Secretary of State, said that he recalled being telephoned from the plane and dictating the oath from the Constitution to a receretary.

According to the magazine, Mr. Johnson's recollections of the assassination "have a touch-ing quality all their own."

ing quality all their own." "What raced through his mind when he learned the President was dead," the maga-zine says, "was no personal thrust for power but rather the memory of the day Harry Truman suddenly inherited the Presidency from Franklin D. Roosevelt more than 18 years before."

Mr. Truman took the Presi-dential oath, Newsweek says, as soon as his wife, Mrs. Bess Truman, and their daughter, Margaret, arrived at the White Me. House. "The od

Mr. "The moral Mr. Johnson seemed to be drawing last week, without spelling it out," says the magazine, "was that no one at the time suggested that Tru-man had shown unseemly haste in promptly taking the Presi-dential oath." moral Johnson

'Small Misunderstandings'

Newsweek says that there are many examples in the Manches-ter book of small misunder-standings, "mostly innocent, that caused friction" between the Kennedy and Johnson fac-tions before and during the journey to Washington.

"L.B.J. is reported to have repeatedly called Mrs. Kennedy 'honey'—a well intended gesture that she found grating," says the margine the magazine. In the Newsweek account, Mr.

Johnson is reported to have ad-mitted probably calling Mrs. Kennedy "honey."

Kennedy "honey." "It's a word that comes easy to me as a Texan," he is quoted as explaining. "You know, if I call some guy's office, and he isn't in, I'll say to his secretary, 'Honey, have him call me when he comes in." Another misunderstanding re-he comes in." Another misunderstanding re-lated in the Manchester manu-script, according to Newsweek, concerns Mrs. Johnson's recol-lection "that, in an effort to console Jackie, she had men-tioned her sorrow that the tragedy took place in Texas— and then immediately realized what an unfortunate thing that was to say under the circum-stances."

accounts Some immediately Some accounts immediately following the assassination sug-gested, Newsweek says, Mr. Johnson had "all but dra-gooned" Mrs. Kennedy into position for the photograph of the swearing-in ceremony.

the swearing-in ceremony. But Newsweek says that "ac-tually Mr. Manchester's version is that Mrs. Kennedy recog-nized the historical imperative of standing at LBJ's side as a symbol of the continuity of the Presidency and took her place by choice."

Newsweek says Mr. Johnson Newsweek says Mr. Johnson admitted at least one instance in which he had to exert his new authority right after the assassination — when President Kennedy's Air Force aide, Brig. Gen. Godfrey McHugh, went forward in Air Force One to tell the pilot to get the plane off the ground. Newsweek says that accord-

Newsweek says that accord-ing to its correspondent, Charles Roberts, who was on the plane, General McHugh got his cue for the order from Ken-neth O'Donnel, a Kennedy aide, after the coffin had been placed after the coffin had been placed on the plane. Newsweek says that "LBJ remembers intercepting the general and telling him he would tell the pilot when to take off." "I did tell him off," News-week quoted Mr. Johnson as saying in reference to General McHugh.

A State of Shock

A state of Shock General McHugh has retired and is reported to live in Paris. He could not be reached for comment last night. But Malcolm Kilduff, who was serving as Presidential press secretary on the day of the assassination, Nov. 22, 1963, said in a telephone interview yesterday that everyone was in such a state of shock at the time that the general was not aware of Mr. Johnson's presence on the plane international and the second s

prior approval of the Kennedy family. Mrs. Kennedy later reached agreement with Look after the magazine agreed to make con-tain changes she had requested. Negotiations with Harper & Row are still under way.