

Books and

Warren Inquiry Sidelights

Representative Gerald R. Ford, Republican of Michigan, who was one of the members of the Warren Commission, is writing a book about the investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Simon & Schuster will publish the book in the spring of 1965 under the title, "The Witnesses." Writing in collaboration with his special assistant, John R. Stiles, Mr. Ford will seek to give a picture of the personalities of the witnesses and their reactions and relations to one another as well as to cover the problems that the commission itself faced.

*

June 10, 1965: pre-publication story on book, "Book Views Role of Oswald's Wife", NYTimes - filed Marina.

new title: Portrait of the assassin,
published June 14, 1965