with an Introduction and Comments by
J. EDGAR HOOVER

Here are the cases which J. Edgar Hoover considers among the most important, exciting and unique in the 57-year history of the FBI. They are now dramatically recreated by Andrew Tully, a best-selling author (CIA: The Inside Story) and prize-winning Washington correspondent who was given access to information from official case files.

The Bureau's Director not only introduces the whole book, but has a special word about each case, and an Afterword in which he advises all citizens how best to guard against crime and cooperate with the law.

FOR ASSASSINATION?
More Exciting Than Fiction!

- The fascinating and complete story of the kidnaping of Frank Sinatra, Jr.
- Reveals how the little-known Petrographic Unit of the FBI's laboratory helped solve a 1960 murder-kidnaping.
- Why the FBI used a television camera to trap an American sailor who was working for the Russians as a spy in the 1960's.
- The complete story of the Rosenbergs and Colonel Abel, among others.
- The famous Dillinger and "Machine Gun" Kelly cases told more vividly than ever before.

Dramatic and authoritative, THE FBI'S MOST FAMOUS CASES brings the history of the FBI completely up-to-date as well as revealing its newest techniques for stopping crime and catching criminals. It's reading that you won't want to miss. Gift-wrapped FREE.
