

"THE book of the political year!"

Evelyn Lincoln

best-selling author of
MY TWELVE YEARS WITH JOHN F. KENNEDY now tells the inside story of

KENNEDY AND JOHNSON

From their historic battle for the Democratic nomination through November, 1963, Evelyn Lincoln, President Kennedy's private secretary, had a unique opportunity to witness the "political marriage" between John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson. She now uncovers a wealth of never-before-published material in her eagerly awaited new book—just published and already stirring up a storm of controversy from Capitol Hill to Wall Street.

- How did LBJ really get the Vice-Presidential nomination in 1960?
- What did Kennedy learn about Johnson's highly-touted political skills?
- How was Johnson "dropped" from important White House meetings—and why?
- What effect did the Cuban Crisis have on the relationship between the two men?
- Why was "Air Force One" a constant source of friction between Kennedy and Johnson?

You'll find the answers in KENNEDY AND JOHNSON—the behind-the-headlines book only President Kennedy's private secretary could have written. PLUS the complete text of Mrs. Lincoln's conversation with President Kennedy, just three days before the assassination, about his choice for a running mate in '64.

"Could be the most controversial book, from a political standpoint, since William Manchester's The Death of a President. . . . An arsenal of campaign ammunition."

—*Sunday New York News

$4.95 at all bookstores now

HOLT, RINEHART AND WINSTON