

Martin was a drifter,
a nobody...

until
he fired
the shot
that shattered
the dreams
of a nation

In that split second he became the world's most wanted man. The assassin whose bullet had destroyed America's brightest Presidential hopeful. The target not only of the FBI, but also the vast organization that had hired him and now wanted to silence him.

Thus explodes the year's most breathtaking suspense novel—a chilling tale of murder and its aftermath, filled with disturbingly real people, and played out against a background of

THE EMPTY
MAN

A novel by
MEL HEIMER

Photo by Antonuk

big-time politics, organized crime, and international intrigue. "This is not merely an exciting story," says Publishers' Weekly. "The author is more interested in exploring the psychology of the hunted and his hunter ... A highly personal contest." $6.50, now at your bookstore

McCall Books