

NYTimes

FEB 19 1975

Why?

The most shocking headlines of 1963 have just exploded in the most exciting novel of 1975.

On November 1, 1963, President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Vietnam was shot to death following a coup approved of in advance by President John F. Kennedy. On November 22, 1963, Kennedy was assassinated. Was there a connection? Diem's family had what all other suspected conspirators against Kennedy lacked: the motivation and the means for seeking revenge. Did they get it that autumn afternoon in Dallas?

A suspense novel as brutally logical as it is terrifying, THE TEARS OF AUTUMN has already created a wave of controversy and bestseller excitement:

"Masterful... utterly convincing"
... It seizes the headlines of the last 15 years and turns them into vivid tableaux of human hope, suffering and chicanery... McCarry writes beautifully. He brings his people alive with strokes of prose as deft as calligraphy."—Rod MacLeish, Washington Post Book World

"Delicacy... subtlety... wit..."
McCarry has written daringly, imaginatively and beautifully... In the spy novel he is suddenly close to the top."—Alvin Beam, Cleveland Plain Dealer

"Plausible enough to inspire belief..." reminiscent of 'Day of the Jackal', this thriller builds around an all-too-real assassination."—Publishers Weekly

THE TEARS OF AUTUMN

by Charles McCarry

It explains too much to be ignored.

A BOOK-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB ALTERNATE
$7.95 at bookstores now.

Saturday Review Press

A DIVISION OF E. P. DUTTON & CO., INC.