

BILL DECKER DIES; SHERIFF IN DALLAS

Original filed Necrology

Was Leading the Motorcade
When Kennedy Was Killed

AUG 31

Special to The New York Times

DALLAS, Aug. 29. — Eric (Bill) Decker, sheriff of Dallas County for the past 22 years, died in Baylor hospital here Saturday. He would have been 72 years old.

Mr. Decker was riding in the first car of the motorcade carrying President Kennedy through Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963. He was to have custody of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Lee Harvey Oswald had ended up with Decker in a Dallas nightclub where he killed Oswald in the back of the Dallas police station.

During Ruby's trial, prisoners escaped from Dallas jail. Although Ruby was recaptured, the escape subjected Mr. Decker to much criticism.

Mr. Decker was credited by some for the ambush that ended the careers of Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow on May 23, 1934, beside an east Louisiana highway. He told officers where to wait for the desperadoes, and later would only admit "somebody told me where to set up the ambush."

When he appeared before the Warren Commission investigating the Kennedy assassination, Mr. Decker was asked to give a history of his life.

"I was chief deputy sheriff for Dallas County 14 years prior to that (election as sheriff in 1949)," he replied. "Prior to that I was chief deputy constable since 1924. Prior to that I was in the courthouse as a court clerk. Prior to that I was an elevator operator in the courthouse. That's my life."