All from Lane's brief:

page 6, col. 1	NYTimes, Dec. 6	"Most private citizens who had cooperated with newsmen reporting the crime have refused to give further help after being interviewed by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation."
page 3, col. 3, point 1	Newsweek, Dec. 9	"... one witness, who was quoted as follows: 'I can't identify him, but if I see a man who looks like him, I'll point him out.'" page 4, col. 3, point 8	NYTimes, Dec. 8 (p. 63?)	"Mrs. Oswald stated that she never knew her husband owned a rifle nor did she know he owned a pistol."
page 5, col. 1, point 8	NYTimes, Dec. 8	"The Secret Service has 'suggested to /Marina/ that it might be safer and easier for her to return to the Soviet Union than to try to live in the United States.'"
