

LEE OSBORNE

May 29, 1963 Jones Printing Co., New Orleans; ordered Hands Off Cuba handbills; gave name (?) as Osborne. CE 2548, XXV 773

Douglas Jones, FBI int'v 12/3/63: did not believe person ordering handbills was Oswald, when shown a picture of him; described the man as "husky ... on the order of a laborer." CE 2542, XXV 769

Myra Silver, FBI int'v 12/4/63: said "a person who she understood gave his name as Osborne" ordered handbill May 29, 1963; was shown a photo of Oswald, did not recognize him. CE 1410, XXII 766

no date Direct Mail Enterprises

Glynn A. Young, FBI int'v 12/3/63: was shown a photo of Oswald, identified him as person who asked for estimate on printing of '4" x 9"' form; referred him to Mailers Service Co. CE 2544, XXV 770

June 3, 1963 Mailers Service Company, New Orleans; ordered FPCC membership application; gave name as Lee Osborne. CE 2548, XXV 773

John I. Anderson, FBI int'v 12/3/63: said he wrote the name Lee Osborne on bill for application form; was shown a photo of Oswald, identified him as the man who had ordered application form, but "he could not remember whether this was the name given to him by Oswald or whether when given the name he misunderstood and wrote Osborne instead of Oswald." CE 1411, XXII 800

late July 1963 James W. Trout Printing

Joseph J. Johnson, FBI int'v, 12/3/63: said Oswald came into shop late July 1963 to order Hands Off Cuba handbill; Johnson did not accept order, Oswald did not identify himself; Johnson later identified him as Oswald from newspaper pictures following assassination. CE 2545, XXV 771

October 1963 Edward Partyka, employed at Profile Room, Stanley Plaza Hotel (Denver?), FBI int'v, Denver, 12/3/63: Overheard Mrs. William Robert Smith mention the name "Lee Osborne" and the same evening when she left the bar made the statement, "Ruby will handle". Partyka said Mrs. Smith had told him (date not specified) that her favorite spot in Dallas was the Carousel. CE 2810, XXVI 204