

Edward Kennedy Threatened

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 18 (AP) —The police disclosed today that a telephoned threat had been made on the life of Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, on his visit to Lynn yesterday. Police Chief George W. Donnelly said that a man had called police headquarters and had said, "He'll never reach City Hall." Plainclothes officers were assigned to follow Mr. Kennedy in his tour of the city despite Mr. Donnelly's belief the caller was "just a crank."
