

Business as Usual

While preparations are being made in Massachusetts for an inquest into the death of his passenger in an auto accident, Senator Edward M. Kennedy goes about his business on Capitol Hill. Here he is as he presided today at a hearing of the Administrative Practices and Procedures subcommittee, which is looking into federal installations in Alaska.

—UPI Photo