For the second time since Mary Jo Kopechne died in the waters off Chappaquiddick Island in 1969, her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kopechne of Swiftwater, Pa., have visited the scene. After arriving at Edgartown on Martha's Vineyard early this week, the Kopechnes visited the site where Senator Edward M. Kennedy's car plunged off the Dike Road Bridge. The next day they had lunch with Sheriff Christopher Look of Dukes County, who participated in the original investigation.
