

SF Chronicle JUL 25 1975
Mother's Stand

Boston

Under no foreseeable circumstances will Senator Edward Kennedy change his decision to stay out of the 1976 presidential race, according to his mother, Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy was quoted in the Boston Sunday Herald Advertiser as saying the family is "very much against" his seeking the presidency. Mrs. Kennedy said "there is not any point in discussing politics since Teddy has taken himself out of the presidential thing."

United Press