RFK's Week: Bugging to Book Bu

could well wish wasn't.

WASHINGTON — It was the week Robert Kennedy a Senate committee, the Hoover charged that Kenneyoung demon investigator, dy as Attorney General aption of Teamsters Union done by the FBI.

At mid-week, the Supreme Court confirmed the convic-To long-term foes who Kennedy's week went from proved the eavesdropping President James Hoffa, a remember him only as the "bugging to book burning." done by the FBI. man Kennedy had tried to jail with so much diligence.

> The court decision, in one sense, was a prize fought and won by Kennedy.

But it also re-kindled the image of Kennedy as a ruthless pursuer.

Then there was the controversy between the Kennedy family and William Manchester over the publication of his book, "Death of a President."

Bobbie and Friends in Sun Valley

SUN VALLEY (Idaho) (AP) - Sen. Robert F. Kennedy (D-N.Y.) and a party of 16 arrived unexpectedly last night at this southern Idaho resort where they will spend the Christmas holi-

With the senator is his wife. Ethel, seven of their children, two secretaries, Mrs. Dean F. Markham of McLean, Va., her three children and two friends of the Kennedy children.

Mrs. Markham's husband and Kennedy's brotherin-law, George Shakel Jr. of Greenwich, Conn., were killed in a plane crash Sept. 24 in Idaho's primitive area.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy, wife of the late President. was to join the senator and his party at Sun Valley but she canceled her reservations Friday.

Others expected to join the Kennedys in Sun Valley are Mrs. Pat Lawford, sister of the senator and the late President, her children, singer Andy Williams and his wife and mountain climber Jim Whitaker and his wife.

A Sun Valley spokesman said astronaut John Glenn and his wife may join the Kennedy party later.