

None Serious

Shots Felled Five Others

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—The blaze of shots that critically wounded Sen. Robert Kennedy early today felled five others in the crowded Ambassador Hotel banquet hall.

The wounded included two newsmen, a union official and a teenager.

Police identified the five as William Weisel, 30; Ira Goldstein, 19; Elizabeth Evans, 43; Irwin Stroll, 17; and Paul Schrade, 43. All but Weisel, a Washington, D.C., resident, are from the Los Angeles area. None was in critical condition.

SURGERY

Weisel, a unit manager for ABC, was wounded in the left side near the abdomen, and underwent surgery at Kaiser Hospital where he was reported in good condition.

Also taken to Kaiser was Schrade, a regional officer of the United Auto Workers Union. Schrade sustained a skull fracture and a laceration on the top of the scalp, apparently caused by a bullet. He also underwent surgery and his condition was reported as good.

Goldstein was treated at Encino for a bullet wound in the left hip. He is an employe of Continental News Service at nearby Sherman Oaks.

IN SKULL

Mrs. Evans, a resident of Saugus, was to undergo surgery at Huntington Memorial Hospital for the removal of a bullet which was imbedded in her skull at the hairline, but did not penetrate the skull, said her husband, Arthur. A hospital spokesman described her condition as good.

Police said Stroll, wounded in the left shin, was placed under sedation at Midway Hospital after being interviewed by officers. They declined to discuss the results of their talk with Stroll.

Also injured, but not by a bullet, was Patrick Thornton, of Los Angeles, who sustained a three-inch scalp laceration when hit by a camera. Thornton said he had been standing outside the banquet room when he heard the shots.

Police said two others were treated for shock.

Alioto Asks For Better Arms Laws

Mayor Alioto, returning from a suddenly shortened visit to Chicago, said today a Constitutional amendment should be drawn up to get effective Federal gun control laws.

Commenting at San Francisco International Airport on the attempted assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, Alioto said there should no longer be argument about firearms control.

"Circumstances today are different from the time in which the Constitution was framed," he observed. "It is a sad commentary, our inability to act in this regard."

Alioto, who was anxious for the latest information about the Kennedy shooting when he stepped from the plane, said the news would have a "strong effect" on the Democratic party.

"It's easy," he added, "to become impatient with these violent acts, but we must keep our reasonableness and redouble our efforts to get stability and rid ourselves of this cancer."

He called the occasion one of "great sadness, first because Senator Kennedy was a very fine man, and secondly because he could have exercised great leadership for the country."