

All Faiths in Bay Area Pay

Men and women of all faiths, colors and creeds will pay final tribute to Senator Robert F. Kennedy today in San Francisco and the Bay Area.

One of the most unusual memorial services will be at San Quentin Prison at 1 p.m. today, when American Indians perform traditional rites of mourning in full costume for the slain Senator who had spoken out so often in their behalf.

An ecumenical service of memorial and affirmation by Christians and Jews will be at 5 o'clock this afternoon at Grace Cathedral on Nob Hill. Joining in the service there will be the Baptist Fellowship, the Baptist Union, the Board of Rabbis of Northern California, the Ministerial Alliance, the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco, the San Francisco Council of Churches.

Final Tribute

Buddhist services will be held at 11 a.m. today at the sanctuary of the San Francisco Buddhist Temple at 1881 Pine St.

In addition, there will be
