Sirhan

LOS ANGELES AP - An attorney for Sirhan Sirhan said he planned to appeal Sirhan's first-degree murder conviction in the slaying of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy to the state Supreme Court today.

Attorney Luke McKissack said Thursday he would represent Sirhan at the court session in Los Angeles. Deputy Atty. Gen. Ronald M. George was to argue for the state.

Sirhan was convicted after Kennedy was shot to death in the Ambassador Hotel on June 5, 1968, shortly after winning California's Democratic presidential primary.
