Kahane, Facing Jail Term, Vows Continued Attacks on Soviets

Rabbi Meir Kahane, the head of the militant Jewish Defense League, said yesterday, at a news conference that he and his followers would not be deterred from using esplosives or other forms of violence against Scoviet installations in this country if they considered it necessary.

"We would not hestitate to use these methods because it is against a tyranny that doesn't allow any form of protest," he declared. "But we would not use them against Americans."

I ast Friday in Federal Count in Brooklyn and are scheduled to be sentenced July 23.

He announced that the league the dynamite could be found. "A lot of people have been using the name of the league in phone calls to claim that it was responsible for some act of violence," Rabbi Kahane said.

Its Firearms Held Legal

He asserted that the league provises on the league against the Soviet Union," he said.

At the news conference, in the league's Brooklyn offices at 4002 New Utrecht Avenue, agents would find when they would not use them against the Soviet Union, against the Legal He asserted that the league provided the development, the police yesterday roped off the East Side Airlines Terminal for an hour while they removed six based registered firearms at its camp in Woodbourne, Sulli-black powder from a locker in the Borough Park section, paid a scheduled visit there and 37th Street.

The police had gone there in response to a phone call made earlier by Rabbi Kahane's de-league's accutive to an insp

By EMANUEL PERLMUTTER
Rabbi Meir Kahane, the head of the militant Jewish Defense League, said yesterday, at a news conference that he and responsible to the charge of the league had called last Friday in Federal Court in Brooklyn and are scheduled to be sentenced July 23.

He announced that the and responsible to the dynamite could be found. "A lot of people have been inspection of its camp."

The Government also agreed

Rabbi Kahane made this statement despite the fact that he and two of his followers face prison terms of up to five years each for conspiracy to manufacture explosives. They response to a phone call made the defense and the prosecution in Federal Court, the Government agreed to drop additional charges of conspiring to transport firearms across state against the three detailed in the police had gone there in response to a phone call made the defense and the prosecution in Federal Court, the Government agreed to drop additional charges of conspiring to transport firearms across state against the three detailed in the police had gone there in response to a phone call made earlier by Rabbi Kahane's defense counsel, Barry Slotnick, to Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Pattison in Brooklyn.

Mr. Slotnick told him he had in-formation that the explosive material was in the locker. Acting United States Attorney

Acting United States Attorney
Robert A. Morse of the Eastern District, said later:

"Having been advised later by a JDL spokesman of the location of the explosive,I must presume it to be part of a goodfaith compliance with the court's direction that all explosives be turned in"

sives be turned in."
Rabbi Kahane, when asked at the news conference whether he would consider his jailing a form of martyrdom that would help his league's efforts to per-suade the Soviets to let Jews emigrate, shook his head and

"Jail isn't a nice place for a nice Jewish boy or for anybody, and I don't want to go there."

Federal Agents Seize Gun At a J.D.L. Camp Upstate

Agents of the United States Treasury Department seized a pistol last week during a two-day search of the Jewish Defense League summer camp in Woodburne, officials said Saturday.

The camp is in Sullivan County, northwest of New York City, near the Pennsylvania border.
Thomas R. Pattison, assistant

Thomas R. Pattison, assistant United States attorney, said the visit by agents of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms division of the Treasury Department had been arranged with the directors of the camp.

The agents seized a .38-caliber revolver and inspected a number of weapons found to be legally owned, according to Mr. Pattison.

JUL 1 9 1971

NYTimes