
Flights Carrying Cubans To Miami Are Resumed

MIAMI, Aug 16 (AP)—Flights bringing Cubans to Miami resumed today after a week's suspension. The first of two daily flights brought 98 refugees.

Cuba unexpectedly curtailed the flights last Monday but lifted the ban later in the week. They are supported by United States subsidy.
