Suit Attacks Pentagon Ban On Paper in Vietnam PX's

WASHINGTON, July 26 (UPI)—Publishers of The Over-seas Weekly have filed suit in Federal District Court here for an order to require Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, to permit distribution of the newspaper through post ex-changes to United States troops in Vietnam and other Pacific

The suit, filed Monday by the Overseas Media Corporation, charges that The Overseas Wekly has ben "banned from competitive access" to the military PX distribution system for arbitrary and capricious reasons that amount to censorship. sons that amount to censorship. In an affidavit, Joseph A. Dear, vice president of Overseas Media, said the paper was the publication that "first exposed Maj. Gen. Edwin H. Walker as a member of the John Birch Society." He told a news conference Tuesday that some high military officers "have never forgiven us for the Walker story."
