Slayings

Defense Ready to Complete Case in Mississippi Rights A

By WALTER RUGABER Special to The New York Times

MERIDIAN, Miss., Oct. 15-

The 18 are charged with con-tanglements. spiracy to deny the three vicprocess of law." The maximum rural emotion, fear, and prepenalty on conviction is 10 judice — a bizarre and someyears in prison and a $5,000 times poignant picture of death on a lonely dirt road.

Found Buried in Dam

The dead youths were Michael
H. Schwerner of New York, 24year-old field worker for the Congress of Racial Equality,
Andrew Goodman of New York,
20, a white college student, and Lames F. Changle of Moviding the Ku Klux Klan who were a 21-year-old Negro plasterer. Investigation to become under-that afternoon by Cecil Price, Chief Deputy Sheriff.

in the civil rights movement's Lawyers for 18 men accused of assault on segregation in Misplotting the "elimination" of sissippi during the summer of three young civil rights workers 1964. They disappeared on June offensive. in 1964 are scheduled to com- 21 and their bodies were found that the 18 participated in a to prosecute the case under a Ku Klux Klan plot to lynch the Reconstruction era civil rights rights workers near Philadel-law, came to court last week after three years of legal en-

Undercover informants pres-

Klansmen Testified

James E. Chaney of Meridian, paid by the Federal Bureau of Beards are uncommon in the in 1964 are scheduled to complete their case in Federal District Court by Tuesday.

The attorneys indicated that several defendants may testify in an effort to punch holes in the Government's contention the Government's contention that the 18 participated in a content of the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner and the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The Government contends the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The attorneys indicated that several defendants may testify in an effort to punch holes in the Government's contention federal Government, which had to prosecute the case under a motion of the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner ambighway chase, and turned them over to be shot.

The Government contends the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The state courts, where any should have had to be made, took no action. The burned it to the ground to lure one of the F.B.I informants, applied their case in Federal District Court by Tuesday.

The attorneys indicated that to be made, took no action. The burned it to the ground to lure one of the F.B.I informants, applied their case in Federal District Court by Tuesday.

The attorneys indicated that the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner ambighway chase, and turned them over to be shot.

The state courts, where any when a mob of Klansmen at the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner ambighway chase, and turned them over to be shot.

The state courts, where any when a mob of Klansmen at the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The state courts, where any when a mob of Klansmen at the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner ambighway chase, and turned them over to be shot.

The state courts, where any when a mob of Klansmen at the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The Government's contention of the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The state courts, where any when a mob of Klansmen at the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The Government contents the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The state courts and the plot to lynch Mr. Schwerner to be shot.

The state cour

Mr. Schwerner into the county, peared to disagree only on one Mr. Schwerner appeared the major point: the role of Jordan next Sunday, June 21, to investigate. But he brought Mr. He said in court that he Goodman, who had just arrived had stood as a lookout and in the state, and Mr. Chaney with him. They were arrested the Barnette version reported that Jordan, asking the lynchers to "save one for me," came up and shot Mr. Chaney

Price, the prosecution conhill country, and the one that tends, held the three in jail Mr. Schwerner wore apparently until the Klan could assemble singled him out as particularly offensive.

On the stand, Jordan placed Price, himself and six others at the death scene.

Jordan, who is under indictment but not on trial, implicated five other defendants as among those who planned the lynching, but said they were not present when the three rights workers were shot.

Wallace Miller, a Meridian police sergeant who was an informant for the F.B.I., named Sam H. Bowers Jr. as Imperial Wizard of the White Knights group and the man who had to "approve" the killings under Klan regulations Klan regulations.