

5 Klansmen in Michigan Charged in Tarring Case

DETROIT, June 22 (UPI)—
The former grand dragon of the Michigan Ku Klux Klan and four klansmen were charged today with conspiracy in the tar-ring and feathering of a high school principal who was trying to improve race relations at his school.

It was the second Federal indictment against Robert Miles, 46 years old, of Howell, in cases associated with the integration of schools.

Mr. Miles, who is now klud (chaplain) of the Michigan Realm of the United Klans of America, faces trial with four other men in the bombing and burning of 10 school buses, in Pontiac last Aug. 30, a week before court-ordered busing of school children began.
