

AO96DN

gyyyxDN

DALLAS, Tex. AP - Police revealed Monday that the wife of multi-billionaire H. L. Hunt, had been threatened by a telephone extortionist Sunday afternoon.

Detective Capt. Will Fritz said Mrs. Hunt received a telephone call about 3:05 p.m. Sunday at her White Rock Lake home.

The caller told her to put $1,000 in a phone booth at a street intersection south of downtown or she would be harmed.

Earlier Sunday, the Rev. J. C. Hibbard, pastor of the Gospel Lighthouse Church, received a similar call and was also ordered to put $1,000 in the same phone booth.

Capt. Fritz said he told Mrs. Hunt not to comply with the threat, but did have Hibbard put $1,000 in the booth. Police arrested a 32-year-old suspect at the booth and jailed him for investigation of extortion.

Late Monday night, no charges had been filed.

JS815pcs Feb. 19

AO97WX