Danger Grows For Johnson, Survey Shows

By JEREMY CAMPBELL London Express Service

WASHINGTON the personal safety of President Johnson on his Eastern travels has been an abiding nightmare to the men assigned to protect him, a profoundly disturbing report is circulating here in Washing-

This report has been prepared by a special panel of Government experts appointed to study Presidential safety after the Warren Commission had completed its deliberations.

MORE VULNERABLE

Broadly summarized, it disclosed that the life of Lyndon Johnson on his native soil is becoming more vulnerable month by month.

Not only have the number of threatening telephone calls to the President increased, and some inadvertently connected, nearly a dozen in-truders have been found wandering about in the White is believed to include a large House grounds over the past number of American defec-House grounds over the past 12 months.

A few months ago, a plainclothes agent strolled in through the East Gate of the White House, calmly showed a forged Press pass to the guards, and then walked un-hallenged into the office of George Reedy, who was then he White House Press Secre-

"SEE HOW EASY?"

The agent pulled a gun on Reedy and said casually: of evidence published by the Now do you see how easy it stoget in here?" Reedy, it stoget in here?" Reedy, it stoget in here? The most elaborate possible methods of protection are ble methods of protection are langerous to the life of the could do about it.

ROBERT WEBSTER Whereabouts unknown ?

President," has expanded dramatically over the past two years, and today contains almost 2000 names.

This list, now being minutely scutinized by the FBI, tors to Soviet bloc countries. whose whereabouts are today unknown.

EXPERT SHOT

Among these perhaps the most interesting is the name of Robert Webster, an expert marksman from Ohio, who defected to Russia at about the same time as Lee Harvey Oswald.

Webster is mentioned several times in the 26 volumes and shortly afterwards a now being devised by the Sespecial Secret Service man cret Service. But Mr. Johnwas assigned to supervise son is sometimes heard to he White House Press observe, echoing his murdered predecessor: "Any deter-Most alarming of all the mined fanatic with guts and panel's findings, however, is a telescopic rifle could do the he fact that the list of "per-same to me, and there is sons considered extremely little that the Secret Service