

Threatens to Kill LBJ-Jailed

SAN JUAN (P. R.) — (AP)
— A 41 year old Puerto Rican has been jailed on charges of threatening to kill President Johnson, a U. S. commissioner said today.

Commissioner Harley Miller signed an arrest order for Ramon Velez Arenas after he was reported to have threatened the President's life while police were questioning him about a separate incident.