DALLAS, JUNE 1 (AP)-A PLAN TO PURCHASE THE TEXAS SCHOOL BOOK DEPOSITORY BUILDING AND CREATE A MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY HISTORY DEDICATED TO THE LATE PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY WAS REPORTED TODAY BY THE NEWLY FORMED AMERICAN MEMORIAL INSTITUTE.

THE SHOTS WHICH KILLED KENNEDY CAME FROM THE BUILDING, INVESTIGATORS SAY.

THE INSTITUTE, A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION, WAS FORMED BY AL TURINSKY, A DALLAS MANUFACTURERS' REPRESENTATIVE, AND PAT MALLOY, A TULSA ATTORNEY.

"WE'VE NEGOTIATED WITH THE OWNERS AND THE BUILDING CAN BE BOUGHT," TURINSKY SAID. HE WOULD NOT REVEAL THE PRICE.

"WE PLAN TO START OUR DRIVE BY TRYING TO SECURE FUNDS FROM CHARITABLE FOUNDATIONS," HE SAID. "THEN, AFTER THE CITIZENS MEMORIAL COMMITTEE AND THE NATIONAL LIBRARY IN BOSTON HAVE FINISHED THEIR PUBLIC DRIVES, WE'LL ACCEPT CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE PUBLIC."
